ASSOCIATION

Provided that the following requirements are met, the contract will be issued with the higher of the initial guaranteed interest rates on the date the application was signed or on the date the premium was received. The contract will be issued with the minimum guarantee rate available on the same date as the highest guaranteed initial rate.

If the following requirements are not met, the contract will be issued with the interest rates in effect on the date the premium is received.

Cash with Application

- Genworth Life must receive the application and premium within 14 calendar days of the application signed date.

1035 Exchanges and Qualified Transfers

- Genworth Life must receive the application within 14 calendar days of the signed date.
- Genworth Life must receive the premium within 60 calendar days of the application signed date.

Non-Qualified Transfers from Money Market Accounts, Mutual Funds, Certificates of Deposit or Brokerage Accounts

- Genworth Life must receive the application within 14 calendar days of the signed date.
- Genworth Life must initiate the transfer.
- Genworth Life must receive the premium within 60 calendar days of the application signed date.

Transfers of non-qualified funds initiated by a broker or client will fall under the Cash with Application guidelines.

Internal Transfers

- Genworth Life must receive the application within 14 calendar days of the application signed date.

If the single premium payment is from more than one payment source, the payments will be means dated to one premium weighted average receipt date.
